NEW WORKERS CASH ON STRANGEST AT 3 TO 1.

On Form a 6 to 5 Chance, but Like All Eastern Horses Under-rated.

New Orleans, Dec. 11.—The sport here to-day was surprisingly good, considering the condition of the track, which was deep in mud, the result of a terrific storm last night. It was expected that the sudden change in the going would bring a long list of scratches, but the fields held pretty close to the original proportions.

New Yorkers Profit.
The victory of Strangest in the fourth race brought profits galore to the New Yorkers, for he, like all of the Eastern horses, is underrated here.

His price was 3 to 1. On form he should have been a 6 to 5 chance. The fact that he was all out at the end was entirely the fault of his rider, McIntyre. In his anxiety to draw the finish line, he was all but caught napping. Had he come on about his business from the home stretch the horse would have won by a couple of lengths. As it was, Evelyn Bird was at his neck as they passed the judges. Jim, poorly handled, was third.

Lackman, by Two Lengths.
Lackman was first of the day's winners. His chances were considered lightly on account of his weight, but he handled it without any trouble, and won in good style by two lengths, with Lagrange second and Tom Collins third. Judge Wardell, Debride and Tobe Paine, the pick of those entered, were withdrawn.

There was quite a delay at the post in this race, and Frost and Kuhn were suspended for three days for disobedience. About as bad a lot of maiden two-year-olds as could possibly be collected bid for the purse in the second race. Ben Chance was selected best of the motley bunch, and for five of the six furlongs that made up the journey, it looked as if his backers would cash their tickets. But there was a collapse in the final drive, and third money was his share of the purse.

Silver Coin, a 12 to 1 chance, won, with Polly Bixby in second place. Forbush's chances for the third race were rated the best thing of the day, and it proved the certainty it had been counted, for he won in a gallop.

Tom Kingsley won the closing event, on his last race there was little to warrant the plunge, but the smart money was on him, and he won easily.

Michael to Ride.
Jimmy Michael, the bicycle rider, evidently means to continue his efforts to qualify as a jockey. He arrived with three horses this morning and stated he is willing to accept outside mounts. He weighs 105 pounds, but claims that within a week he will be able to ride a 120 pound horse.

G. B. Moreland, who is handling Pat Cleburne here, has been engaged to train for Turner Brothers next season.
